

New Eden, Advocate

we can all believe in lies and ancient tales or we can choose to Advocate be the one who makes new paths, reject the ways of yesterday a primal voice inside will lead you to your fate grasp your immortality

all hail the whisper that tells you that you must fight within your temple lies the source take hold the light you are now its advocate feel the voice inside, it tells you its real and not a dream stand, stand tall to all, you know the truth, the truth inside

take hold the light you are now its advocate
