

New Found Glory, Belated

I've never felt so bad in my entire life
But this time I did it to myself
What do you expect from me?
I did it
So what do you expect from me

Let go of my hand
Is it time to go?
I'm not ready to turn my back on you yet
I'm not going to let you down
Let you down

September came so quickly
I wasn't prepared
I didn't mean to miss your birthday
What do you expect from me?
I did it
So what do you expect from me?

Why don't you let go of my hand?
Is it time to go?
I'm not ready to turn my back on you yet
I'm not going to let you down

Bridges will fall from under us
But we are strong
We'll (we'll) get through this
The earth will open up (earth will open up)
And try to pull us in
But we'll get through this
Get through this

Let go of my hand
Is it time to go?
I'm not ready to turn my back on you yet
I'm not going to let you down
Let you down
