

New Found Glory, Broken Sound

i wake up
something more than what i'm supposed to be something more than i have meant to show.
how was i supposed to know that i've wanted, and i've waited.

and i can be the one
to show you that life's not simple enough.
and i can be the one
to tell you i've held this back for too long.

and my heart aches...
these feelings i've held inside for you.
and my heart aches...
how can I stop the pain?
