

New Found Glory, Familiar Landscapes

let's fall deeper into sleep and our dreams become fake reality i wake, i hope.
I'm on my way, to a coast where I know the roads like the back of my hand familiar landscapes and I know that this is new like your first day of school and you're feeling awkward like you miss your home and it leaves you with an empty feeling I just can't take it anymore

what do you want from me? what do you want from my life?
what do you want from me?
cause my heart can't take it my heart can't take this anymore you feel deeply misplaced your world has been built to crumble you hope and pray everyday it works out and it leaves me with this empty feeling
I just can't take it anymore

What better time than now to bandage your bleeding and I won't stop till I fix your misleading your charm of course you use as a weapon but my heart can't take it
