

New Found Glory, Passing Time

what a waste of a day.
such a waste of time.
i'd never admit to say
that the fault is mine.
i'm never too far away.
i'm never too close behind.
these songs are my way
to keep you in my mind.

too close is too far away from you.
you are the one and only sign.
why did it take so long, so long for me to come to?
all i needed was time.

too stubborn, too ignorant, too crazy about you.
i didn't know love was blind.
to say this world was made for us.
i never knew, i never tried.

how can we make it through today without thinking about tomorrow?
one heart is enough to save.
sit back and watch it all go.
