

New People, Rain Talk

sometimes a thunder sounds like a party about to start sometimes the raindrops feels like a woman walking in heels you turn around but nobody walks it's just the rain talk yes, the rain talks

sometimes a lightening appears like they're celebrating new year Sometime a gust of wind makes you feel you heard somebody sing like a tune of some old folk rock

it's just the rain talk

and there're a times you just don't mind the weather and it don't get any better and there ae moments like this when you're certain you always shoot and miss and only thing you get is bad luck but it's just your mind talk your mind talks
