

New Seekers, Beg

I look at you and I see what I've been looking for now it's very clear to me we should be together.
You make me feel I could reach for the impossible and knowing how much you care I'll be there forever.

You know I'll beg
steal or borrow
to give you sunny days and in a hundred ways
I'll bring you love.
You know I'll beg
steal or borrow
to make your garden grow and most of all you know I'll bring you love.

I always knew that the world could be a finer place so what if I had to wait better late than never.
You you're like me you believe love makes it all worth while and although we've just begun we'll go on forever.

You know...
