

New York Rel-X, No Hope

this time can't see what's right can't make you feel the same as me so tired of getting bad breaks tired of lifetimes in the rain i've lost too much this time sometimes i want to scream in pain but truth be told i'll stand again can't let you win when you're to blame

(Chorus)

no i won't fight for you waste my time or die for you won't spill my blood or go insane won't eat your shit or take the blame no hope-generation no hope for our generation (x2) you've put the blame on us and locked us up without a key you've tried confusing standards your moral threats don't bother me you took away our trust you've tried divide and conquer it's sad when you can't find your dreams and nothing is the way it seems

(Chorus)

we're tired of fighting a battle and tired of being affraid tired of being mistreated and i won't feel ashamed (x2)

(Chorus)
