

NeWBReeD, How It Was To Be

With an opened day
Touches are like a deep breath
Pretty words welcome smooth reality
This is how it was to be
The never-day takes place
And brings joy well known from innocent times

Blue in our eyes and a warm light around
Small answers that can break the chains
And the rhythm goes round and round
Sunny smiles on the daily wind

Hope that flame will hunt me constantly
That I will keep us together
Two people calling magic to each other
A kind of state of mind - human needs to seek?

Now patience tells all the secrets
Working on every day
Knowing and keep on learning
