

Niall Horan, You Could Start a Cult

Darlin'
I will give up everything
Who I'll be and who I am
You can have it all

Baby
You could start a cult you see
Anywhere you go, I'll be
You are so much more than beautiful to me

Oh I'll follow you till there's no tomorrow
I'll follow you till there's no tomorrow
I'll follow you till there's no tomorrow
I'll follow you

Swear you
You could start a war or two
Kingdoms fighting over you
To wake up by your side is all I wanna do

Oh I'll follow you till there's no tomorrow
I'll follow you till there's no tomorrow
I'll follow you till there's no tomorrow
I'll follow you

Baby
You could start a cult you see
They will say that we're crazy
But you are so much more than beautiful to me
