

Nic Billington, Vixen

I can feel the burn
Radiating from your skin
I'm so afraid to learn
What transpires when I give in
You've got me hooked on love
Stuck inside your world of bliss
Just like a vixen I'm drawn
Because you're dangerous (oh oh)

I'm losing self control
Can feel my body growing weak
While you consume my soul
I'm so transfixed by your mystique
There is no turning back
There is no way to set me free
I'm under your attack
Emergency (emergency)

I'm all messed up (ah ha, I know)
Fallen for a vixen (Well maybe watch out for that lady)
I'll give in to your command
I can't fight it understand
I'm stuck under your spell
It's an emergency (emergency)

I'm all messed up (ah ha, hell no)
Fallen for a vixen (You're tripping look out you are slipping)
I'll give in to your command
I can't fight it understand
I'm stuck under your spell
It's an emergency (emergency)

I've fallen victim
So addicted to the rush
You making my head spin
I just cannot get enough
Wanna play me like a game
Use me as your catalyst
While I turn up the flame
Cause the pleasure's worth the risk

I'm losing self control
Can feel my body growing weak
While you consume my soul
I'm so transfixed by your mystique
There is no turning back
There is no way to set me free
I'm under your attack

There's no explanation, no confrontation
Forget mathematics and calculations
Electrostatic systematic heart pulsations
I lose my cool when I think of you
You're a weapon of mass destruction
The reason I can't live without your seduction
The automatic systematic power of a vixen
I try act cool but I'm lost in you

I'm all messed up (ah ha, I know)
Fallen for a vixen (Well maybe watch out for that lady)
I'll give in to your command
I can't fight it understand
I'm stuck under your spell
