

Nicci Templeton, For The First Time

No one can take your place with me
And time has proven that I'm right
There's no place I'd rather be
Than in your arms for the night

No time can pass your sight unseen
No moments steals the way I've found
Life time lived in such a dream flows like a feather to the ground

And for the first time
I've been seeing things
I've never noticed without you
And for the first time
I see the things I treasured without you

The birds like leaves on winterwood
Sing hopeful songs on dismal days
They've learned to live life as though it should
They are at peace with nature's ways

You are as natural as the night
And all that springs from you is good
And the children born from your light
Are as beautiful as fireflies in the night

And for the first time
I've been seeing things
I've never noticed without you
And for the first time
I see the things I treasured without you
