Nicholis Louw, Think About You

I close my eyes and see you standing there alone in the dark Your hair is flowing gently in the wind I know that you keep missing me as much as I miss you When we are apart, just apart

Your smile is what I need Your touch is what I feel Your love, the only thing that's true I think about you

There was a time when we walked hand in hand together as one We shared forbidden fortunes of our dreams We walked through seasons in the sun that warmed us tenderly Forever in love, you and me

It's a cold and lonely winter of despair, and as for the tears Just slowly running down your face like rain The winds of change blow through your hair and made me feel so sad That we almost lost all we had

Tomorrow is not just another day, 'cause I will be back Back in your arms, back in your life again And I will give up everything to feel your tenderness Together with you, home at last
