

Nicholis Louw, Unmistakable

You have been carrying me always so lovingly always Watching me guiding me holding me close to Thee so safe
How You see all in me everything I cant see
Magically You have been loving me endlessly so

So unmistakable I am flying
So untouchable because You believe in me

So unbelievable how You have saved me
So unbreakable this is Your love for me

So unthinkable how it must feel when the world has forgotten the real You
Gracious Almighty ferociously loving me so
How could we straight from Thee lose our way so easily
Heresy blasphemy murderous jealousy
Your Grace is so
