

Nick Black, The Reason Why

Senselessly waiting on
This hope I'm hanging on.
Things I might never have to say.
Seems to go on & on.
This note that I linger on
Can put a feeling to this shame of great.
You're lying right next to me.
Trying so hard to be
Something that I need,
Something I needed.
You're lying makes sense to me.
Trying what's left of me.
I know the reason, I know the reason why.
Restless you seem to be,
For things you may never see.
Now I might never be the same.
You feel it when I'm gone.
You can't put your finger on
Uneasy feeling as I fade away.
You're lying right next to me.
Trying so hard to be
Something that I need,
Something I needed.
You're lying makes sense to me.
Trying what's left of me.
I know the reason, I know the reason why.
You're lying right next to me.
Trying so hard to be
Something that I need,
Something I needed.
You're lying makes sense to me.
I know the reason, I know the reason why.
