

Nick Drake, I Will

Who wouldn't do anything
That you want them to Carry the world right to your feet
If that's what you want me to do
Didn't we laugh
And scream and shout
Didn't we wait
Til it all worked out

I know it's late
And I should wait until the morning comes
But I got a fear that wakes me up
And I don't know where the fear comes from

Didn't I bring you
What I could bring
Didn't I tell you
Everything
Well I will
Well I will

Some people talk about us
Said we'd never get this far
Let it all rain around us
You know the way things are

Fifteen miles from hope
Another town another week goes by
I'm fading away here like the birds
That disappear into the sky

Wouldn't I be there
When you call
I pick you up
When you start to fall

Well I will
Well I will
Well I will
Well I will
