

Nick Gilder, All Across The Nation

All Across The Nation
(the wheels are rolling)

All across the nation
I've seen this generation
In a silver plane
A subway train
The man was standing there and I've got my intuition

There's a game called 'recognition'
All around the world
The boys and girls
Are looking for the same

The wheels are rolling
All around the world
The wheels of fortune
Let me see you turn

Ticket for a destination
Aboard the new sensation
A wondering son
The lucky one
A London boy in flight

Looking for the satisfaction
Of that rock 'n' roll reaction
Heres an invitation
A reservation
For all to hear the band

New places, new faces
This ever-winding road
Long races at fast paces
Can be a heavy load
