

Nick Grey, Tammuz

i've had happy times since august 04, and none of them compare with what i've lived before. i met a man with e.s.p., he was claiming to be a painted beast, a memory of what i've lived before now i'm in love with the river's rise and i pray the world mountain.
and i don't compare with rivers and birds, with peacocks and beasts and i don't compare with rulers and kings or otherwise...
