

Nick Lachey, Alone

I get this feeling that I'm over my head,
I guess I'm over my head again,
And I keep thinking that I'll get through this mess,
And I'll find happiness and then,
I'll have everything I wanted,
But what if all I wanted,
Doesn't turn out being what I, I want it to be,

Chorus:

Alone alone,
I'm better off alone,
Than sitting around waiting for life to happen,
It's heaven compared to what I had,
Solo we go, no need to know who's in control,
No longer will I be trapped in you,
Being alone, it ain't so bad.

I get this feeling that I'm falling behind,
Yes I'm falling behind, it's true,
And I'd rather be here at the back of the line,
Than ahead of the times with you,

If you say I'm good for nothing,
At least I'm good for one thing,
And to someone that means something, someday soon

Chorus:

Alone alone,
I'm better off alone,
Than sitting around waiting for life to happen,
It's heaven compared to what I had,
Solo we go, no need to know who's in control no longer will I be trapped in you,
Being alone, it ain't so bad.

Being without you is just what I need,
'Cause I started feeling, like I can breathe,
Let me be, alone alone alone alone alone alone alone,
(i just wanna be...),
alone alone alone alone alone alone alone

Chorus:

Alone alone,
I'm better off alone,
Than sitting around waiting for life to happen,
It's heaven compared to what I had,
Solo we go, no need to know who's in control,
No longer will I be trapped in you,
Being alone, it ain't so bad.

Alone alone aloooooone alone alone aloooooone alone alone aloooooone alone aloooooone

Being alone it ain't so bad
