Nickelback, I'll Come for You

Just one more moment Thats all thats needed Like wounded soldiers In need of healing Time to be honest This time Im bleeding please dont dwell on it Cuz I didn't mean it I cant believe I said Id lay our love on the ground but it doesnt matter cuz lve made it up Forgive me now Everyday I spend away My souls inside out Gotta be someway that I can Make it up to you now, somehow. By now you know that I'd come for you No one but you Yes Id come for you But only if you told me to And Id fight for you I'd lie, it's true Give my life for you You know I'll always come for you I was blindfolded But now Im seeing My mind was closing Now Im believing I finally know just what it means to let someone in To see the side of me that no one does or ever will So if youre ever lost and find yourself all alone I'd search forever just to bring you home, Here and now this I vow By now you know that I'd come for you No one but you Yes Id come for you But only if you told me to And Id fight for you I'd lie, it's true Give my life for you You know III always come for you You know III always come for you No matter what gets in my way As long as there's still life in me No matter what, remember You know III always come for you Yes Id come for you No one but you, Yes Id come for you But only if you told me to And Id fight for you I'd lie, it's true Give my life for you You know III always come for you No matter what gets in my way As long as there's still life in me No matter what, remember You know III always come for you I'd crawl across this world for you Do anything you want me to No matter what, remember You know III always come for you You know III always come for you
