

Nickelback, Window Shopper

Forever a lonely time and the dogs aren't always Aren't always on my mind
Cause I didn't free them
The scenery is burning me cause I'm still in it So why don't you free me
Cause its not my business
What he's done to me
Control is all you really need
And I guess I had it coming, my fault for not runnin
I just dressed too tempting cause your heads fuckin empty
And I can't believe it
I can't believe that you didn't see me

Passing glances fall on me like screams on deaf ears They're all laughing at me with encouraging cheers.
