Nicki Minaj, Nicki Hendrix (feat. Future)

Feeling destructive Leads to destruction Pray I get through Just to build it up again Love's up again Forever lovin' Break it down To build it up again

Let me just be honest with you because We ain't that different We ain't that different See the mentions We had questions hard for me We ain't that different We ain't that different

I saw 'em like missed tags, I wanted to clear 'em
I feel like you here and they love you, how you let my love near you?
Could open your fears up, I had to tear up
How was I thinkin' 'bout you when I'm shakin' hands with your superior?
I knew you was somethin' serious, wanted to protect you
Never upset you, just wanted to sex you
Never, ever would've left you
Tell me, I'll come back and get you
Pickin' the issues
But never no tissues

(It's because)
We ain't that different
We ain't that different
See the mentions
We had questions hard for me
We ain't that different
We ain't that different
We ain't that different
We ain't that different
See the mentions
We had questions hard for me
We ain't that different
We ain't that different
We ain't that different

Don't you walk away from me

How you let me-e-e walk away from you-ooh? Baby, did you think there were a million me's? I guess I underestimated you-ooh too Well, sorta I thought you were smarter This pussy taste like water I would've had your daughter, had your empire in order Now you ain't even a starter I'm Ewing in the fourth quarter And after I ball and that jet gon' get charted (Yeah, mm-hmm) It's amazing, all my shit is blazin' Isn't it amazin'? Blazin' I know you love when I sing Isn't this shit frightening? Bling hittin' like lightning, lightning (Ooh) I thought you (Knew) Boy, you should've (Known) I thought you knew, knew
