

Nicola Di Bari, You'd Better Smile

Smile, you'd better never cry
A man like you should never shed a tear
Smile, each time you'd better smile
When things go wrong, so wrong
You wish to die, to die

I know it's hard to smile the day
Your girl has gone away
And you're alone

Lie, sometimes you'd better lie
A man like you must keep his pain inside, inside

I know it's hard to be alone
The day you miss someone
Someone who's gone

Smile, each time you'd better smile
For you get lost and wander home alone, alone, alone, alone, alone.
