

Nicola Hitchcock, Moving Into A New Space

The time will come when you will know that
All of this illusion
Will be no illusion for you
And you will see
I never loved you and you think you know me
You never knew me

Moving freely like my conscience
Time is healing
Moving into a new space
In my movie
My projection is healing for me
Moving into a new space

So call me up and tell me what you've been doing
Or don't call me, don't tell me what you've been doing
Whatever game you play you never knew me
And you think you know me

And if I keep myself here whenever calm eludes me
I know these strong emotions will hold no power for me
Let me grow surely, steadily, with you or without you
