

Nicole Cherry, Memories

Yeah...

This is me Nicole Cherry memories..

I still remember every second, every minute, every hour
The day you left me there
There was a cold, bad day in summer
I was 14, I was a child
You were a big boy
My own desire...

If you feel there is no love
If wonder why it's search for so long
So you baby girl
Please be strong , be strong

I still got memories
I keep then under my bed
Every day I gotta sleep with them
There's no regrets but I hope I'll forget
No way for turning back X2

La,la...Yeah..memories yeah..
La,la...Oh,oh memories yeah..

I was 14 ,I was child
No nothing really, really matter
Cause everthing , little think was dressed in pink
And you love got me blind , and you love got me blind
La,la,la like no other

If you feel there is no love
If wonder why it's search for so long
So you baby girl
Please be strong , be strong

I still got memories
I keep then under my bed
Every day I gotta sleep with them
There's no regrets but I hope I'll forget
No way for turning back X2
