Nicole Cherry, Pop That day by day time is running away I can't stop what it's started I can't see what is coming in to my way don't stop to believe you've got nothing to prove when you're making a mistake just get up don't be afraid to say: Sorry! that's how you start an ordinary day in the moment of glory yes i can i can climb the highest mountains if I want yes i can yes i can I can hate I can love and forgive If I want yes i can yes i can I can get up and fight f it's necessary and I cn do what I want with my life yes i can
