

Nicole Gallimore, Ride Of My Life

Being with you
Not something I choose to do
It's something I need
Need to be ok
You're what's keeping me alive
You're like a drug im hooked on
Baby I need another fix (X2)

You're what I want
You're what I feel
You're who I am
And as the pain you cause me
Begins to feel like pleasure
That's when I know
That's when I know
I know it's over

Iv fell of the track
Will I ever get back?
Do I want to?
Do I need you?
Do I need you?
Yes, yes yes

You're what I want
You're what I feel
You're who I am
You don't even notice me cry
The tears are healing to me
I need to feel so I can breathe

Rip my heart
Rip it out please
Than I
I will truly live

You're hurting me
Can't you hear my plea?
Save me
Save me with your smile

All I need is to be with you
For you to notice me
For you to see when I cry
And to know its all
It's all because of you
It's all because of you

Come ride this ride with me,
There is room for two
Me and you
Me and you on the ride of my life

Come ride this ride with me,
There is room for two
Me and you
Me and you on the ride of our lives
