

Nicole, Here I Am

chrous: here I am for you all my love looking for someone like you that can take me away from all my fear and hope and dreams you are the one I been waiting for.
It was hard for me at first to let you know how I truly feel this way me feel like I can go on knowing that you are here with me and holding me and never let go even though I play hard to get it you that me feel this way.
just don't turn your back on me and I will never leave you by yourself.
just go back to the chrous.
