

nIEBO, Devil's Eyes

Heaven above my head freedom i want to scrape something in the air tells me it's not the end i feel you
i've got your thorn in my chest so i'm walking through hell's battlefield in my head it seems that nothing can change my way buy i believe in you
i believe in you
human in the sea of souls there's moment
and i know this is love devil in yours eyes he's watching me dying
i will feel you till the end of time
like a child at the mother's breast even if sometime it hurts yeah i believe in you here on the stage i'll die lost in the devil's eyes yeah here on the stage i'll die
