Nields, Innertube

I remember much Walking down to the lake at dusk You dare me, I dare you Hanging down from a rope

Chorus Innertube Innertube Innertube

You climb the tree Swing the rope back to the shore to me You push me, I push you Swinging out over the dark water

Chorus

And we're wet and on the grass End of summer coming fast Wonder if the rope will hold us two

Chorus

We get back too late Standing awkwardly at my gate You hug me, I hug you We say goodbye to innertube

Chorus
