

Niels Brinck, I don't wanna love her

So close
A perfect start
So undeniable
Fallen apart
So right from wrong
So beautiful
Truly defining
So hard to let go
She always knocking doors into my thoughts..
I don't wanna love her
I don't want her in my life
I don't want her near me
But she's so deep inside
I don't wanna love her no
I just wanna fly away
But broken wings don't fly
She took a blue sky
Turned it to rain
She took pure freedom
Transformed it to pain
Don't want her prison
Don't want her poison
Don't want her games her cage her ball and chain
She's always knocking doors into my thoughts..
I don't wanna love her
I don't want her in my life
I don't want her near me
But she's so deep inside
I don't wanna love her no
I just wanna fly away
But broken wings don't fly
Bonds unbroken
Are leading me astray
Words unspoken
Are driving me insane
My mind is prisoner
To a heart out of control
I don't..
I don't wanna love her
I don't want her in my life
I don't want her near me
I don't wanna love her no
I just wanna fly away
