

Night In Gales, Intruder

javelins hither ! envenom my breast !
...as minstrels of pestilence intrude ! penetrate !
blacken the fount of chaosraves... a rapturous onslaught bastardblade stampede sparked daggers stabbing onward to each and every thornwombsleep...

intruder, intruder...! the dutcrown is yours intruder, intruder...! persecuter of the pure thousandfold thunderkiss a deathborn predator's hiss carnivorous as hymens in savagery and skyclad words of furious breed my speech...!

torn by the intruder's carrionscythe a bewildering razorharp its song damns marble eyes to see only memories of nightfall's feast that brings terror and tears...

terror and tears...!
