Nightfall, Sin

Horny feelings haunt my mind And I'm afraid I can't escape How a dream can turn so black Or it's again that female god Or it's again that devil's mark

She's so real, full of beauty Everlasting like hope, I hope

Please turn away and leave my tranquil mind My christian flesh cannot stand a devil's night

Liar, you wanna kiss her Liar, you really feel her Liar, you wanna love her, that's you the moral face

Horny feelings haunt my mind I am afraid I won't escape How a dream can be my dope Or it's again that female god Or it's again my female god

She's surreal, full of beauty Everlasting like hope, I love her so

Please turn away and leave my tranquil mind My moral eyes cannot stand your sinful sight
