

Nightmare Of You, Please Don't Answer Me

I was wondering,
While you were in the bar with me
Did the candle by you
Signal a flame
Inside your chest?

But please don't answer me
My dream just breaking free
And yes I am scared
Of what the truth may be

And it feels like I've been hit by a motorbike
Sure, it's lonely but it's safe
And you turned on the break

I was wondering,
Is my name in your book tonight
Is there a page or two
Concerning me and you
Oh nevermind

But please dont answer me
I couldn't bare the weight
You were
And yet I still feel like I am great

And it feels like I've been hit by a motorbike
Sure, it's lonely but it's safe
And you turned on the break
Sure, it's lonely but it's safe
And you turned on the break

And it feels like I've been hit by a motorbike
Sure, it's lonely but it's safe
And you turned on the break
Sure, it's lonely but it's safe
