

Nika Turkovic, Hey Little Boy

Every morning when I wake up
I think about - only you
And I say to myself
When I come to school today
I will see his face
And he will be staring at me
Like he's out of space
Ref.

Hey little boy
How I miss your face today
Hey little boy
I'm looking for you everywhere
Hey little boy
Don't you know how much I care
But you don't even know I'm there
Ref.

I told my dad about this little secret
And he, he was so amazed
'Cause never before had I loved that strong
Like I love you n so many ways
Ref.

But you...but you...
Ref.

But you...but you...
Don't even know I'm there
