

Nikki Hassman, Only Give My Heart

You want your fantasies
A love that calms the sea inside you
That conquers all
Make you real, make you strong
Something to believe in

You've been waiting for
The one you can adore
To show you who you are
Show you who you can be
Oh, you can find yourself in me

Chorus
I'll give you honesty
And all the love you'll ever need
'cause I can only give my heart
I'll give you faith to see
Everything you ought to be
'cause I can only give my heart

You want to find what's true
Then look at me and you
With my love holding on
You'll believe you belong
And that's the only way that I can...

Repeat chorus

Bridge
My heart and nothing less
Hoping that you'll find what you're after
My love is now the answer
If I give you all that I am
Oh, there you'll see
All you are to me

Repeat chorus 3x
