

Nikki Jonet, King of Hearts

Black and blue
He split my ego in two
Jack said Ooo baby
You're taking on the devil you're too much of a lady
Be careful
With how you do he has broken harder girls than you

How's it up there on your pedestal
Cause I'm about to pull you off

Last night I shot and killed the king of hearts
Put a gun against his head
Put a bullet through my bed he made me
Thought he could play me take me all the way down
It's a losing bet trying to steal the crown

Gave me diamonds
Gave me pearls
He was bluffing when he said my girl
Gave me kisses
Spent the dollars
How'd I miss the lipstick on his collar for a moment
He was honest
So he blamed it on the booze just like the cowards always do

How's it up there on your pedestal?
Cause I'm about to pull you off?

Last night I shot and killed the king of hearts
Put a gun against his head
Put a bullet through my bed he made me
Thought he could play me take me all the way down
It's a losing bet trying to steal the crown

In another place in another time I bet we'd work out
I could be your wife but this is my town
Boy you're in my town

Last night I shot and killed the king of hearts
Put a gun against his head
Put a bullet through my bed he made me
Thought he could play me take me all the way down
It's a losing bet trying to steal the crown
