

Nikki Leonti, Now I Believe In Miracles

One gray and lonely day
You came into my life
Those foolish little games I played
Had left me cold
Like the world outside

Your love was there for me
To melt me down like snow
Your grace fell on me like the rain
Washed away my pain
And you filled my soul

Oh...everybody's lookin' for answers
For the light
Oh...the moment that you opened my eyes
I got mine

CHORUS

Now I believe in miracles
I see them ever since you came in my life
I am
And you're the reason why
You give me hope for the future now
Just when the world around me came crashin' down
Right out of the blue
A miracle came true
And it's you...

I walk through pastures green
I know that I am free
You are the shepherd guiding me
I'm no longer blind
'Cause it's You I see

Oh...everybody's lookin' for answers
I got mine
Oh...the moment that you opened my eyes
For the light

Oh... (etc.)
