

Nikki Webster, We'll Be One

I am a child who has a dream,
A dream to be strong,
To stand for where I'm from,
Now I can see all the world all around me,
Holding me close,
In this world where we belong,
And I know in my heart,
We'll be flying,
For I believe the day has come,

When we all raise our hands,
Together,
And hope that this day brings peace to all,
We can walk side by side,
Forever,
To follow our dreams,
And hope that this means,
We'll be one,

I will remember forever,
This day we said goodbye,
To the heroes by our sides,
And as the flame burns so brightly around us,
Shining a light,
As it journey's on tonight,

So let's all raise our hands,
Together,
And hope that this day brings peace to all,
We can walk side by side,
Forever,
To follow our dreams,
And hope that this means,
We'll be one,

I can't believe the end has come,
When friendship's just begun,
When nations join to be a better world,
So let's reach up to the stars,
Together we'll get hope and joy,
To walk the world,

So let's all raise our hands,
Together,
So let's all raise our hands,
Together,
And hope that this day brings peace to all,
We can walk side by side,
Forever,
To follow our dreams,
And hope that this means,
We'll be one,

And hope that this means,
We'll be one.
