

Nikki Williams, Glowing

This is my confessional
Seven seconds till I hit the ground,
But you saved my life
Now I feel indestructible
So protected when you're around,
Yeah, you saved my life

You make me, you make me feel so incredible
You and I, you and I feels so unbelievable
You're making, you're making so unenviable

A million hearts, but you're the only one
You locked me up like I'm glowing in the dark
I'm in your heart, you're the only one
You locked me up like I'm glowing in the dark

This is my confessional
Seven seconds till I hit the ground
But you saved my life
Now I feel indestructible
So protected when you're around
Yeah, you saved my life

You make me, you make me feel so incredible
You and I, you and I feels so unbelievable
You're making, you're making so unenviable

A million hearts, but you're the only one
You locked me up like I'm glowing in the dark
I'm in your heart, you're the only one
You locked me up like I'm glowing in the dark

This is my confessional
Seven seconds till I hit the ground
But you saved my life
Now I feel indestructible
So protected when you're around
Yeah, you saved my life

A million hearts, but you're the only one
You locked me up like I'm glowing in the dark
I'm in your heart, you're the only one
You locked me up like I'm glowing in the dark!

A million hearts, but you're the only one
You locked me up like I'm glowing in the dark!
I'm in your heart, you're the only one
You locked me up like I'm glowing in the dark
