

Nikola Sarcevic, My Aim Is You

all my friends, they say they wanna conquer the world today they got so many dreams to catch and many things to do but me, i'm not the same i only have one single aim yeah only one thing's on my mind and that is you

cuz all i want is to be with you
it's all i want
it doesn't really matter what we do

i could be sick, poor, old, or blind don't care as long i have you around no my condition doesn't count as long as i'm with you and true love is hard to find at least the one of your kind and to have that love there's nothing i would not do

it's all i want
hoping that you say you love me too

it's all i want

it's all i want
it's all i need
only be with you
