

Nikolo Kotzev, Henriette

On my own I've been wandering
Lord knows where I've been
I keep on looking, wishing and wondering
Time and time again

Now your face has captured my heart
I only pray that it's not too late
Another place, a brand new start
I know your love was worth the wait

Henriette, you're the one I'm searching for
You bring the world to my door
You make my life complete, so complete
Henriette, you're a vision like I've never Known
With you I've finally found a home
Now nothing's out of reach
Children playing, sun is falling
I dream in days of future past
People praying, voices calling
Saying : I wonder how long will it last

Henriette, all my lonely days are through
I dedicate my life to you
You're everything I need
Henriette, you must be answered prayer
All my life and love are yours to share
A reason to believe, to believe
Oh, Henriette
