

Nilufer Yanya, anotherlife

It's written on your face
I let you walk your way
I can't watch
It's running through my veins
I'm picking up the pace

Guess that now you
Don't need me
It is just like the weirdest thing
I want you to believe me
That I'm alright
I'll do anything yh.

I don't act my age
Now you kick my love away
I can't stop.
Already running late
All I wanna do is say
If it hurts you to leave me
Are you okay
Losing everything?
After last time believe me
That I'm alright

I'll do anything yh
I'll do anything yh
I'll do anything yh
I'll do anything yh
I'll do anything yh

Spend a lot of days with these thoughts
Keep them locked away I can't stop
In some kind of way I am lost
In another life I was not.

(You carry on your life , I'll do anything yh)

It's running through my veins
I let you walk away
I can't watch
All over my face
I'm picking up the pace

Guess that now you
Don't need me
It is just like the weirdest thing
I want you to believe me
That I'm alright
I'll do anything y
