

Nina Hynes, Time Flies

She's got a watch
And it can speak the time
In a New York accent
It says 8:45
And when she's late for work
It's up to you to get her up
It's so cold outside
She'd never leave you
For kissing you goodbye

No we don't say 'I love you'
But I know she's mine
No we don't say 'I love you'
But I know she's mine

He's got a smile
That makes you feel you've won the first prize
His long eyelashes blink so fast before he cries
You trust him when he says
He won't tell you any lies
How times flies
He wouldn't leave you for kissing you goodbye

No we don't say 'I love you'
But I know he's mine
No we don't say 'I love you'
But I know he's mine

Time flies, time flies, how time flies, with you
How time flies, time flies, time flies, with you..
