

Nina Kinert, Combat Lover

Come come come combat lover you came here to get some more seems like you're turning worse than ever before ho ho ho hold my tongue while I'm talking and you won't here a word I'm not what you came for I'm nothing more than a girl you're making my heart spin, you're making it work I give you my body, I give you my soul you came for a reason, lashes for me my love can also be a killer machine say say say say your name where you come from I will not tell so I'm all that you wish for in a night so cold
come come come combat lover
you taste every kiss you dress so fine I'm under your smell you're making me thinking you're kind you're making my heart spin, you're making it work
you came here to get some more seems like I'm burning this is worse than before co o o combat lover you think everything and everyway you whisper my name and you wish I will obey
come come come combat lover combat lover uh uh
you're making my heart spin, you're making it work
