

Nina Nastasia, Been So Long

It's been so long since we went for drinks
Just to laugh and talk about how we're so lucky
Our nights are tired and full of excuses
You're crueler now and I never do listen
We work so hard just to get things done
Hoping we'll be happier years to come
I don't know if we'll ever
Be free like that first year we spent
But I know I can't live without you
I still love you
I still love you
