

Nina Nastasia, Roadkill

I'm feeling myself against the ground
Out on the highway waiting down
Buffalo rumble in the wind
Sometimes in the wind
Sometimes...

Shame, shame on myself, can't take the heat
I start to drink a shady tree
And watch the hell lights coming down on me

Let yourself go
I hear them say
It's beautiful
I'm not afraid
This is "happy" ever after

Oh, my my security
Is running in circles over me
But i don't think i'll stick around
This time

Let yourself go
I hear them say
It's beautiful
I'm not afraid
This is "happy" ever after

Let yourself go
I hear them say
It's beautiful
I'm not afraid
This is "happy" ever after
