

Nina Nastasia, There Is No Train

There is no train to take you this late
Was it a plan or a mistake
I was aware but I didn't say
I let the last one roll on as you talked all along
This is the way
Everything changes
Make one careful move

It isn't fate
I made it so

And at my place
I'll use the truth
Unlike the way I came to you
I come to know you
