

Nina Simone, Lonesome Cities

There a few more lonesome cities that I like to see
While the want of wanderlust is still inside of me
There a few more handsome men that I like to know
Just a few more handsome men is down the road I go
Maybe when I have seen it all
Seen all there is to see
I find out I still can not run away from me
Just as long as trains keep running
Restless woman I'll be
And there a few more lonesome cities that I like to see
Hey now,
Maybe when I have seen it all
Seen all there is to see
I find out I still can not run away from me
Just as long as trains keep running
Restless woman I will be
And there a few more lonesome cities that I like to see
Just a few more lonesome cities that I like to see
