Nine Inch Nails, Echoplex

Nice and high and far apart
Just like they said
I built this place with broken parts
Just like they said
You chip away the old version of you
You'd be surprised at what you can do
I'm safe in here
Irrelevant
Just like they said

My voice just echoes off these walls
My voice just echoes off these walls

You feel me breathe
I am watching you
I see it all
The many ways you can't get to me
I see them all
I see the hell you put yourself through
All the things I could do if I wanted to

My voice just echoes off these walls
My voice just echoes off these walls
I don't need anything at all
My voice just echoes off these walls

(whispered)(lalalalalalalalalalalalalala (3x) lalalalalalala)

And I just slowly fade away x3

(Fade) x6

You will never ever, ever, ever get to me in here x3
You will never ever, ever, ever get to me
